NEW-COMERS SELECTED IN STATE SQUAD

*Quick return
by Vivoli*

This picture was taken nine months ago, when Max Vivoli collapsed for the second time after he had regained consciousness from a severe concussion, and shows committeemen calling anxiously for a doctor.

It was thought that Max was through with soccer after this catastrophe. However, he is not only back with Juventus, but has been selected for the State squad.

FOUR new-comers to local football have been chosen with the first group of State squad personnel announced by the selectors late last week.

They are Walter Ardner, Joe Ruyter, Rein Yntema, and Johann Neuhold, and each of them has an excellent chance of being selected for the State side to meet Queensland in June.

Whether the British Football Association Cup, currently held by Queensland, will be at stake is not yet known. New South Wales and Queensland will exchange visits before the Melbourne trip, with two matches in Brisbane in May, and two others in Sydney and Newcastle early in June.

The squad is as yet incomplete, and additional players will be named soon. The first list suggests that the selectors are still looking for a right full-back, wing-halves, and inside-left and wing partner.

Here is the tentative squad:

P. CUBERO, E. VELLA, W. ARDNER, P. VIDOVIC (from J.U.S.T.); J. RUYTER, R. YNTEMA, S. DE BRUYCKERE, C. MATHYSSSEN (Wilhelmina); R. WEMYSS (Polonia); F. LOUGHRAN, R. OXTON, E. SMITH, N. HOBSON (Moreland); W. COOK, I. PETHERICK (Slavia); T. JACK, W. HARBURN, J. NEUHOLD, R. PIERCY (Hakoah); M. VIVOLI (Juventus).

This year's team will also have the pleasure of playing against the Hungarian club, Ferencvaros, and a Chinese side from Hong Kong.

The selectors — Mr. Defris, Mr. Lawrence and Mr. Kiburg — have conferred with the State coach, Len Young, and the trainer, Bill Lyons, and plans are in hand to commence training and practice shortly.

An approach has been made to the Olympic Park Trustees to install floodlighting suitable for night training.

OFFICIALS APPOINTED

Management officials have been appointed for the Victorian State team and Queensland's June visit.

Mr. Des. Hamilton, of South Melbourne United, will be team manager, and will be assisted by Mr. Reg. Lawrence, last year's manager.

Mr. Charles Dodd is tour manager for the Queensland visit, and will work with the advice and support of the Association chairman, Mr. W. R. Thomas, and the secretary, Mr. S. Beaton.

Mr. Dodd held a similar post for the visit of South Africa to Melbourne in 1955.

Two matches will be played at Olympic Park during the Queen's Birthday week-end. The first on Saturday, June 15, the second on Monday, June 17.

HARMONY WILL ACHIEVE

THIS space in the "Soccer News" Annual Review of 1956 was occupied by an editorial headed "Much To Be Done," which indicated very briefly that "a great deal of organisational development has yet to be done to put the game on a firmer foundation."

It was gratifying to note that this work was begun early this season through a Council sub-committee known as the Committee of General Enquiry.

Then a cloud appeared on the horizon. Some observers felt that the gigantic scope of the Committee's agenda could defeat itself — that a great deal of time must elapse, and much obstruction and dissension had to be overcome, before concrete results were achieved.

Fortunately, this evaluation has already been found to be exaggerated.

Following its policy of convening small meetings, the Committee decided to meet each division separately on the subject of league re-formation, and requested First Division clubs to send delegates to its first hearing last week.

EVERY CLUB RESPONDED WITH TWO DELEGATES, and a most enlightening meeting, in the form of a round-table conference chaired by Dr. Charles Walker, resulted.

In a most cordial and progressive atmosphere, and in the short space of two hours, views were expressed by every club on the questions of the formation of a State League, the registration and transfer of players, the likelihood of increasing each league to 12 clubs, the possibility of several divisional League Management Committees, and ways and means of overcoming the difficulties of creating and managing junior teams.

If subsequent meetings are equally successful, progress will be more rapid than was previously thought possible.

Harmony and co-operation can move mountains!

Division 1 review by Morrie Buckner

WINDMILLS HAVE STRUCK WINNING FORM

WILHELMINA got into the winning list by beating Juventus 3-1 at the Showgrounds last Saturday, and made it a double by beating Brighton 3-2 at Olympic Park on Monday.

These two wins carried the Windmills from ninth place on the ladder right up to third place.

The Dutchmen cannot relax, however, if they want to stay with the leaders. Both wins were hard-earned and creditable, but not outstandingly convincing, and they have yet to meet Box Hill, Slavia, Polonia and J.U.S.T. before the first round of the season closes.

But for the fact that Max Vivoli is not yet back to his best, and John Picinich clearly showed the effects of the illness which has kept him out of the game for weeks, plus the fact that Joe Plateo couldn't play because of blisters under his feet, and Remo Guardani was recruited into the centre-forward berth, Saturday's game might have ended differently.

Then, on Monday, Brighton gave Wilhelmina a major fright, and was right in the game for 70 minutes with the score 2-all. It was only during the last 20 minutes that Wilhelmina appeared to take control of the game.

The Dutchmen have a match-winner in the awkward-looking but very effective international Rein Yntema, who scored three of their week-end goals and triggered two more of their total of six.

Brighton, incidentally, automatically win sympathy for their near-misses, losing by the odd-goal-margin in both of their Easter matches, going down 1-2 to glamor team J.U.S.T. on Saturday. Both efforts deserved better fates.

Slavia, possibly the most heterogeneous team in the league, continue to surprise and nosed J.U.S.T. out of the lead on goal-percentage with two wins last week.

After beating Geelong 3-2 on Saturday, they denied Polonia all but a penalty goal on Monday to win 4-1 — a thoroughly convincing win. They face an acid test to-day when they meet J.U.S.T.

Polonia's inconsistency is remarkable. On Saturday, they beat Box Hill with the highest score of the 46 1st Division matches played to date, 5-0. On Monday, they couldn't raise a gallon.

Last week's shock defeat was the one administered by Moreland to Hakoah, and the 3-1 margin cannot be described as lucky. Hakoah pinned Moreland down last year with three wins and a draw out of their four matches, but Moreland seem to have found the answer.

The J.U.S.T.-Box Hill 2-2 draw last Monday was a match of "firsts." Box Hill scored their first goals and gained their first point, and J.U.S.T. dropped their first point in the five matches both have played this season. Could this forecast a change of ladder altitude for both clubs?

Star Teams Tomorrow

THE annual star-studded match, Commonwealth v. The Rest of the World, will be played at Olympic Park to-morrow afternoon, with an under 20 junior game as curtain-raiser starting at 1 p.m.

Teams:

Commonwealth: Hobson (Moreland), Lawrie (Polonia), McIntosh (Hakoah), Wemyss (Polonia), Muscat (George Cross), Glennie (Slavia), Loughran (Moreland), Strahan (Polonia), Cook (Slavia), Blackley (Hakoah), Piercy (Hakoah). Reserves: Scott (Brighton), Cullen (Brighton), Wilson (Moreland), Thomas (Hakoah).

Rest of the World: Barotajs (Slavia) or Ruyter (Wilhelmina), Brenner (J.U.S.T.), Jakubowski (Polonia), Neuhold (Hakoah), Westerveld (Wilhelmina), Meier (Richmond), Luyten (Wilhelmina) or Plateo (Juventus), Cubero (J.U.S.T.), Ardner (J.U.S.T.), de Bruyckere (Wilhelmina), Weinber (Juventus). Reserves: Vidovic (J.U.S.T.), Plekan (Polonia), Remmers (Wilhelmina).

RULES CAN BE BEATEN — IN THE SCHOOLS!

BELIEVE it or not, there are still folks around who say soccer's on the down-grade. It's said that the "new" clubs haven't reached the form shown three years ago by giants Juventus, J.U.S.T. and Hakoah — that the class of the top clubs has slipped.

So I sought soccer-wise V.A.S.F.A. coach, Len Young, who celebrates his third year with the association this month, for comment.

And Len has this to say about our soccer:—

- The standard's never been higher.
- The future's never been brighter.
- The youngsters have never been more interested.

It's the juniors who can lead the way to better soccer. And more and more of them are taking an interest in the game at school. But the trouble is, if they're sport-minded and promising, sooner or later they head straight for Rules. The attraction: the glamour — and the money.

It's more than a whisper now that several quarters are pressing for professionalism in soccer. Whatever the other arguments, it's a sure draw for the better class youngsters.

Meanwhile, they need expert advice. And Len can't take care of all the schools. He's appealing for players to help out by contacting schools nearby and offering services at their convenience. It's up to our players to make sure soccer continues to score in the schools.

Unluckiest guy in the game — John Collins, of Moreland. Broke his right wrist during night football. Just recovering from that and broke his left wrist in a training run. And this is his first season in Australia!

HERE's a thing — the Cops are criticising themselves for not shadowing the opposition closely enough! The Police side, who, incidentally, never boast about a performance, also say they must exploit open spaces more — and this was in a game they won, 5-0. Now, that's the way to keep improving.

Sunshine Girl

This lovely Sunshine girl, Arlene Andrewartha, is featured in the Australasian "Post" (issue of April 11) as the magazine's "choice of a thousand women." She is also a finalist in the "Sun News-Pictorial's" Girl of the Year Quest.

Arlene is a friend of Sunshine City's Michael Hope, and will be sponsored by that club in the Queen of the Ball competition at the all-sports cabaret night to be held at the Sunshine Town Hall on Friday, May 10.

Frankston find the 1 p.m. Olympic Park kick-off time a shade too early. They are having difficulty in getting together a team—because several players are unable to play unless they ask their firms for "time off."

Everybody's happy at Ferntree Gully. They've been a good match for the opposition so far in their first season — and they're also celebrating the return of giant full-back Andrew Hofstee after a knee injury. Andy's over 16 stone.

New boys put Austria high in World Cup running

RESTAURATEUR Bob Maas tells me he's got a hot tip for the world cup — and it's not Hungary! Frank Wimmer informs him Austria are going to walk away with the trophy. Only snag: they've no goal-keeper!

But Bob points out they've got a mighty line-up otherwise. There's new boys, Ardner (J.U.S.T.), Neuhold (Hakoah), Gotschlich (Slavia) and Lichtenecker (Yallourn), plus the old stars Berner, Brunbauer, Schwartz, Pedzimaz, Neidlinger, Steiner and Schranz.

Something they don't know — newcomer Ferdie Sellner's causing comment for his 'keeping at Richmond. And he's an Austrian . . .

JOHN OLIPHANT, who handles the radio soccer review from 3XY on Saturdays at 6.30 p.m., regrets he is unable to take messages for broadcasting after 6 p.m. Between 6 and 6.30 p.m. he is busily engaged taking scores and highlights from the games.

Listeners who have items of news are requested to write to Mr. Oliphant at 225 Wattletree Road, Malvern, in time to reach him by Saturday's mail.

Maccabi news is that they have signed on former Hungarian international Forgasc, from Hakoah. He's been appointed coach as well. Fiukelstein was badly hurt in the game against Brunswick, and the club are after the official referee's blood — he didn't turn up.

CAPTURED!

PEPE CUBERO, J.U.S.T.'s star inside forward, wanted to play last Saturday despite the fact that it was one of the most important days of his life — his wedding day!

Pepe pleaded with club officials to select him for the match against Brighton, but naturally they were reluctant to do so. While appreciating his club spirit, they pointed out that to expose him to the ever-present risk of injury an hour or two before his marriage was completely unjustifiable when several good reserve players were available.

New coaches for J.U.S.T. are ex-Yugoslav first division player Mario Krule and J.U.S.T. veteran, Steve Zakomorok. The club now have floodlights on their Como Park training ground.
